

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

The Intelligent Transportation Systems Joint Program Office (ITS JPO) has the following meetings and webinars planned for the summer of 2011.

All events are free and open to the public.

For specific times and locations of the ITS JPO public meetings and webinars visit the Public Meetings section of www.its.dot.gov.

Connected Vehicle Infrastructure Deployment Analysis Report Review	Webinar	June 24	1:00 ET
Core System Requirements Walkthrough and Architecture Proposal Review	Public Meeting	June 28-30	Washington, DC
Applications for the Environment: Real-Time Information Synthesis (AERIS) Transformative Concepts Workshop	Public Meeting	July 13	Washington, DC
Overview of the Dynamic Mobility Applications Program	Webinar	July 20	1:00 ET
Road Weather Management and the Connected Vehicle	Webinar	July 27	1:00 ET
Connected Vehicle Policy and Safety Meeting	Public Meeting	Aug. 2-3	Chicago, IL
Connected Vehicle Truck Safety Meeting	Public Meeting	Aug. 4	Chicago, IL
Transit Connected Vehicle ConOps Workshop	Public Meeting	Aug. 4	Chicago, IL
Real-Time Data Capture and Management Program Research Data Exchange Concept of Operations Review	Webinar	Aug. 10	1:00 ET
Real-Time Data Capture and Management State of the Practice Assessment and Innovations Scan Overview	Webinar	Aug. 17	1:00 ET
Core System Requirements Walkthrough and Architecture Proposal Review Meetings	Public Meeting	Sep. 20-22	San Jose, CA

Webinars are 90 minutes in duration. Persons planning to attend any event should send their full name, organization, business e-mail address and name of the public meeting(s) or webinar(s) to Adam Hopps at ITS America at Ahopps@ITSA.org.

For questions please call (202) 680 0091.

If you need a reasonable accommodation, please make it known in your registration email.

