

“Open Platform Concepts and Vehicle Infrastructure Integration (VII)” A Roundtable Discussion

Agenda and Discussion Topics

August 5, 2008

Management Information Center - 12th Floor
John A. Volpe National Transportation Systems Center
U.S. DOT Research and Innovative Technology Administration
55 Broadway, Cambridge Massachusetts 02142

10:00a	Opening Remarks Participant Introductions	Dick John, Volpe Center Director Emeritus All participants
10:15a	VII Background and Objectives vis-à-vis Open Platforms <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Expected Scope/Users• Safety Critical Applications• Technical Requirements (Authentication, Low Latency, Security, Privacy)	Mike Schagrín, RITA ITS JPO
10:30a	PART I: Definitions and Dimensions of Openness <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Perspectives from the World Wide Web• Other perspectives and experiences	Moderator: Dick John
Noon	Working Lunch <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Addressing VII technology requirements with an open platform
1:00p	PART II: Open Platform Strategies <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Open Platform Governance and Responsibilities• Key Enabling Policies, Technologies, Standards• Public Finance and Policy/Regulatory Incentives	Moderator: Dick John
2:45p	Break
3:00p	Summary Conclusions <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Next Steps• Potential Action Items	Moderator: Dick John
3:30p	Departure	